Also be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Officer that shall make any false or untrue Muster of Man at Home and every Commissary Master Muster and other Officer that shall allow or sign the Muster Roll wherein such false Muster is contained or any Duplicate thereof upon Proof thereof upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before a Court Martial to be thereupon called (which is hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath) shall for such their Offence be forthwith captured and displaced from such their Office and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom or in Their Majesties Service and shall likewise forfeit the sum of One hundred Pounds

XI.
Commissary, Sec. to give Muster of Militia, is Mayor who is to represent.
Penalty.

Also be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Commissary or Muster Master upon any Muster to be made had or taken by him or them shall by a convenient time before such Muster made give notice to the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Officer of the place where the Soldiers so to be mustered shall be quartered who are hereby required to be present at every such Muster and give his utmost assistance for the discovering any false or untrue Muster there made or offered to be made And that every such Commissary or Muster Master making or making such Muster that shall neglect to give such notice as aforesaid or shall refuse to take the aid and assistance of such Mayor Chief Magistrate or Officer where the Soldiers so to be mustered shall be quartered shall forfeit the sum of Fifty Pounds and be discharged from his Office And no Muster Roll shall be allowed unless the same be signed by such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate or Officer respectively

Person offering to be mustered.

Also also be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That if any Person shall be falsely mustered or offer himself falsely and deceitfully to be mustered every such Person upon proof thereof made upon Oath by Two Witnesses before the next Justice of the Peace of the County where such Muster shall be made and every such Person so fully warranted or attesting to be fully warranted upon Certificate thereof in Writing under the Hand of the Commaundary of the Marston or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid made to such Justice of the Peace the said Justice is thereupon and is lawfully authorized and required to commit such Offender to the House of Correction there to remain for the space of Ten days and to have his Ear cut off by the Goaler or Keeper of such House of Correction And if any Person shall wilfully or willingly lend or furnish a Horse to be examined which shall not truly belong to the Trooper or Troop so warranted the said Horse so fully warranted shall be forfeited to the Informer if the same doth belong to the Person lending or furnishing the said Horse or otherwise the Person lending or furnishing the said Horse shall forfeit the sum of Twenty pounds upon Oath made by Two Witnesses before the next Justice of the Peace.

And he is also further enabled by the Authority aforesaid That the said Forfeiture shall be to such Person or Persons that shall inform immediately to be paid out of the arrears of such Officers Pay as shall knowingly so offend upon conviction before the Court Martial by Order of the said Court to the Paymaster if such Officer so offending shall have any Arrear and if there shall be no arrear the Court Martial shall absolutely give order to seize the Goods of such Officer so offending and sell them for payment of such forfeiture to the Informer sending the Overplus to the Owner And if such Officer so offending shall have no Goods then then he shall be sent to the House of Correction there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the space of Six months And the said Court Martial is lawfully obliged to discharge such Informer if a Soldier does any further Service if he shall demand the same

And he is further enabled That if any Paymaster Agent or Clerk of any Regiment Troop or Company shall wilfully do or withhold by the space of One month the Pay of any Officer or Soldier (Clarks and all other just Allowances being deducted) after such Pay shall be by him or them received or if any Officers having received their Soldiers Pay shall refuse to pay such respective common Soldier their respective Pay when it shall become due as the rate of Seventeen shilling and six pence a week for each Corporal of Light Horse Fourteen shilling a week for each Trumpeter and private Trumpeter Eight shilling and two pence a week for each Dragon Seven shilling a week to each Sergeant Five shilling a week to each Corporal and Drumsman and Four shilling a week to each private Soldier of Three Majesties two Regiments of Foot Guards and Six shilling a week to each Sergeant Fusiliers shilling and six pence a week to each Corporal and Drumsman and Three shilling a week for each Foot Soldier of the Army And above and above the said Three shilling by the week at the end of every Two months shall accrue for six pence by the week to each Foot Soldier of the said Army the said six pence per week being the remainder of the Substantance of each Foot Soldier That upon proof thereof before a Court Martial is aforesaid every such Paymaster Agent Clerk and Officer so offending shall be discharged from his employment and shall forfeit to the Informer upon conviction before the said Court Martial One hundred pounds to be raised as aforesaid and shall be thereby utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom or in Their Majesties Service And the Informer if a Soldier if he demand it shall be and is hereby discharged of any further Service Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And it is hereby enacted and declared That the Counting Office of every Troop or Company at the time of Muster shall bring in a Certificate signed of the Names of such persons as are sent or have leave to be absent upon Furlows and of such persons as are dead and deceased since the last Muster with the [day] of their death or deaths And if such Certificate shall prove false upon conviction thereof before a Court Martial the Officer signing such Certificate shall suffer such penalties and in such manner as is declared and inflicted by this Act upon those that make false Musters

And it is hereby further enacted That if any Officer shall muster any Person that is a Servant or receives Wages from any Office or that shall attend any Officer as a Servant in the absence of the said Officer from his Quarters or shall muster any Person by a wrong Name knowingly upon conviction thereof before a Court Martial the said Officer or Commaundary shall suffer such Penalties and in such manner as is inflicted and declared by this Act upon those that shall make false Musters.

And whereas by the Petition of Right in the Third year of King Charles the First it is recalled and declared That the People of this Land are not by the Laws to be burdened with the supplying of Soldiers against their Wills And by a Clause in one Act of Parliament made in the One and thirtieth year of the Reigne of King Charles the Second for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand five hundred and sixty two pounds seven shilling and three pence for paying and disbursing the Forces it is declared and enacted That no Officer Military or Civil nor any other Person whatsoever shall from thenceforth presume to place quarter or billet any Soldier or Soldiers upon any Bishop or Inhabitant of this Realm of any degree quality or profession whatsoever without his consent and that it shall and may be lawful for any such Bishop [Superior] and Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier or Soldiers notwithstanding any Command Order Warrant or Billeting whatsoever But inasmuch as at this present time there is a War against France whereby there is occasion for the marching of many Regiments Troops and Companies in several parts of this Kingdom towards the Sea coast and otherwise Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That for and during the continuance of this Act and so long as it shall and may be lawful for the Constables Tythingmen Headboroughs and other chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities Towns and Villages and other Places in the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales

An Act for the regulating encouraging and settling the Greenland Trade

WHEREAS the Trade to Greenland and the Greenland Sea in the fishing for Whales there hath been heretofore a very beneficial Trade to the Kingdom not only in the employing great numbers of Seamen and Ships and increasing great quantities of Provisions but also in the bringing into this Nation great quantities of Oyl Blubber and Fat. And whereas neighbouring Nations do yearly make great advantage thereby not only supplying themselves with that sort of Oyl and Fat but by vending into other parts great quantities thereof and particularly into the Kingdom where the said Trade is now quite decayed and lost. And whereas several Merchants of this Kingdom do heretofore endeavour to settle and regain the said Trade and for their encouragement thereon it was by an Act of Parliament made in the five and twentieth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the second entitled An Act for the encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades and for the better securing the Fisheries Trade (amongst other things) enacted That (in regard<sup>1</sup>) there was then great want of Harbours and Stores shiffl and convenient in the Trade of Whale fishing it should and ought be lawful for any Ship or Vessel truly belonging to England Wales or the Towns of Berwick upon Tweed and whereof the Master should be an Englishman and inhabiting within the Places aforesaid from and after the First day of May which was in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred seventy and three and until the First and twentieth day of March which was in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred eighty and three employed for the catching of Whales during each Voyage to be rewarded with one moiety of the Harbours and one moiety [of the rest<sup>2</sup>] of the Masters only English and yet to pay no further or other Custom for the Oyl Blubber or Fat caught or imported in such Ship or Vessel than if such Ship or Vessel had been navigated with Three fourths of the Masters English Which said Act was by another Act of Parliament made in the Second year of Their present Majesties Reign entitled An Act for granting to Their Majesties a Schoole of Tonnage and Pinnage and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandises exported and imported contained For Four years. And whereas several Merchants and other Persons of the Kingdom were by the (<sup>3</sup>) first aforesaid Act encouraged to fit out and send to the said Greenland Sea some Ships or Vessels for the catching of Whales whereby some small quantities of Oyl Blubber and Whale Fat were reported into this Kingdom but they not being able to carry on the said Trade upon these single or separate harvest in regard that the neighbouring Nations did yearly [and<sup>4</sup>] far greater numbers of Ships into those Seas the said Merchants and other Persons of this Kingdom were forced to desist from following the said Trade which is now wholly possessed by Foreigners And since the expiration and revival of the said Act there hath not been any Ships sent from England to the said Greenland Sea or any Oyl Blubber or Whale Fat imported into England but such as have been bought of Foreigners whereby great sums of money are yearly drawn out of England for those Commodities and the Rates and Prices which are now paid for the same are now above six times more than heretofore they were and shall be thereof convicted upon such evidence as aforesaid the person or persons so convicted shall forfeit and be subject to the same pains and penalties as are hereby directed to be inflicted upon the person or persons who shall be found to have any Hare, Partridge Pheasant Pidgeon Pib Fowls or other Game as aforesaid and if any person or persons so produced or charged with the said Offence shall not before the same Justice give such evidence of his innocence as aforesaid he shall be convicted thereof in the same manner as the person or persons first charged therewith is hereby directed to be and use from person to person until the first Offender shall be discovered.

And to the end all Keepers and Gamekeepers mentioned in and duly authorized according to the Act made in the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second may be indemnified in the execution of the said Office be it enacted that all Lord of Manors or other Royalties or any person or persons authorized by them as Gamekeepers shall and may within their respective Manors or Royalties oppose and resist such Offender in the right time in the same manner and be equally indemnified for soe doing as if such fall had been committed within any ancient Chase Parks or Warren inclosed whereof.

And whereas diverse idle disorderly and mean persons have and keep Net Angles Leaps Piches and other Engines for the catching and killing of Fish out of the Power Waters Rivers and other Fisheries to the damage of the Owners thereof be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid That no person or persons whatsoever shall and may at any time or times from and after the Five and twentieth day of March which shall be in the space of one Leend One thousand six hundred ninety three have or keep any Net Angle Leap Piche or other Engine for the taking of Fish (other then the Millers and Sellers thereof for their better convenience in the sale of the same And other then the Owner [h<sup>c</sup>] Occupier of [any] River or Fishery for the time being) And moreover that it shall and may be lawful not only for the Owner or Occupier of any River or Fishery and also for all and every other person and persons by him or them for that purpose appointed to some device and keep to his and their owne use and use all and every Net Angle Leap Piche and other Engines which he or they shall find used or laid or in the custody or possession of any person or persons whatsoever [fishing in any River or Fishery whatsoever] without the consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof but also for any person or persons whatsoever (being thereto authorized by Warrant under the hand and seal of any Justice of the Peace of the same County Division Burrough Town Corporate or any other place in the dry dist) to search the houses dwellings or other places of any person or persons hereby prohibited to have or keep the same as shall be supplied to have or keep in his or their custody or possession any Net Angle Leap Piche or other Engines aforesaid and the same and carry or any of them to some device and keep to his and their owne use and use or otherwise to cut in pieces or damage as thing by this Act prohibited to be kept by persons of their degree.

Providens always that this Act or any thing therein contained shall not extend or be construed to extend to charge any Fisherman or his Apprentice or Apperence lawfully authorized to fish in Navigable Rivers or Waters with lawful netts and engines but that every of them shall and may (according to the laws and orders made and to be made and varied for the good order rule and government of such Navigable Rivers and Waters use the trade of Fishing as they lawfully might have done before the making of this Act any thing in this Act contained to the contrary [in any wise] notwithstanding.

And whereas diverse Offenders daily convicted do commonly gear Wines of Cornuall to remove such convictions into superior Courts at Westminster he hopes thereby to discourage and weary out such persons injured by great delays expenses and incumbrances be it therefore enacted That no Cornuall shall be allowed to remove any conviction made or other proceeding of for or concerning any matter or thing in this Act unless the person or persons against whom such conviction shall be made shall before the allowance of such Cornuall become bound to the person or persons prosecuting in the sum of Fifty pounds with such sufficient Sureties as the [Justice or] Justices of the Peace before whom such Offender was convicted shall think fit with condition to pay unto the said Prosecutors (within one month after such conviction confirmed or Proccedings granted) their full Costs and Charges to be ascertained upon their Oath And that as default thereof it shall be lawful for the said Justice and Justices and others to proceed to the due execution of such conviction in such manner as if no Cornuall had been awarded: Provided That where any Offender shall be punished by force of this Act [h<sup>c</sup>] hee shall not be prosecuted nor incur the penalty of any other Law or Statute for the same Offence.

Providens [alwaies] That if any Advers Bill Pleas or Suits shall at any time after the said Five and twentieth for continuing of diverse other part of the said Act which by experience are found to be useful and beneficial [to] the publick. Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid That the said Act for the better relief of the Poor of this Kingdom be in all parts thereof not repealed and continued in and by the said Act made in the last Session of this present Parliament (where then and except what relates to the Corporations specified in the said Act for the better relief of the Poor of this Kingdom and thereby concerned) shall be concerned and shall be in force for the space of seven years from the Thirtieth day of February One thousand six hundred ninety two and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament and so longer.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That an Act made in the Thirtieth year of the Reigne of King Charles the Second entitled An Act to enable Creditors to recover their debts of the Executors and Administrators of Executors in their own wrong Which said Act in the First year of the Reigne of the late King James the Second was enacted to be in force from the First (1) of the then present Session of Parliament and to continue for Seven years and from thence to the end of the first Session of the then next Parliament shall be and is hereby continued and made perpetual.

And whereas it hath been a doubt whether the said Act did extend to any Executor or Executors Administrator or Administrators of any Executor or Administrator of Right who for want of privity in Law were not before assembled nor could be used for the debt due from or by the first Testator or testator notwithstanding that such Executor or Administrators had waived the Goods and Estate of the first Testator or testator or converted the same to his or their own use. For remedy whereof Be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid That all and every the Executors and Executors Administrators or Administrators of such Executor or Administrator of right who shall [waive] or convert to his own use Goods Chattels or Estate of his Testator or testator shall or might have been any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas by an Act made in the last Session of this present Parliament entitled An Act to take away Clergy from some Offences and to bring others to punishment it was enacted in cases where a man being convicted of Felony might demand the benefit of his Clergy a Woman convicted for such like Offence as praying the benefit of the Statute should [not] have judgment of death given against her upon such conviction or execution awarded upon any Ordinary for such offence but should suffer the same punishment as a Man who hath the benefit of his Clergy in the like case should suffer And whereas some doubt hath arisen upon the said Statute whether a Woman should have the benefit thereof more than once. Be it therefore declared and enacted by the authority aforesaid That if any Woman hath been or at any time hereafter shall be convicted of any Felony for which a Man might have the benefit of Clergy and upon her prayer hath once had or hereafter shall once have the benefit of the said Statute and shall be again convicted of any other Felony for which a Man might have the benefit of his Clergy such Woman shall be and is hereby totally excluded from having any benefit or advantage of the said Statute but shall suffer pains of death in such and the same manner as if the said Statute had not been made.

And be it further enacted That the said last mentioned Act shall continue and be in force for the space of three years from the Thirtieth day of February One thousand six hundred ninety two and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament and not longer.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That an Act made in the Session of adjournment holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth years of the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second entitled An Act for preventing abuses in printing seditious treasonable and unlicensed Books and Pamphlets and for regulating Printing and Printing Presses which was by an Act made in the First year of the [Reigne of the] late King James second and enacted to have continuance from the Twave and twentieth day of June One thousand six hundred eighty five for the space of seven years and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament. Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid That the said Act be continued and [be] in force for the space of one year from the Thirtieth day of February One thousand six hundred ninety two and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament and not longer.

And whereas a certain Act made in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth years of the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second entitled An Act for returning of able and sufficient Jurors in England Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid That all Jurors (other than Strangers upon Tryals per Empanem [Ligues]) who are to be returned for Tryals of Issues pined in any of the County of Kent Essex Devon Dorset and Exeter or before Justices of Assize or Nisi Prius Oyer and Terminer Good Delivery or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace from and after the First day of May one thousand six hundred ninety three in any County of this Reigne of England shall every of them have in their own name or in trust for them within the same County Ten pounds by the year at least above expenses of Freshhold or Copyhold Land or Tenement or of Land and Tenement of Arable Tillage or in Rent or in all or any of the said Land Tenement or Rent or Fee Simple Fee Tail or for the Life of themselves or some other person And that in every County of the Dominion of Wales every such Juror shall then have within the same County Six pence by the year at least in manner aforesaid above expenses All which persons having such Issues in aforesaid are hereby enabled and made liable to be returned and serve as Jurors for the trial of Issues before the Courts and Justices aforesaid Any Law or Senate in the contrary in anywise notwithstanding. And if any of a lesser Estate and Value shall be respectively returned upon any such Jury it shall be a good cause of challenge and the party returned shall be discharged upon the said challenge or upon his own Oath of the truth of the said name. And that no Person whose making default shall be saved but by special Order of the Court or Judge before whom the issue is to be tried for some reasonable cause proved upon Oath before the same Court or Judge. And all such Issues shall be duly entered and tried. And the Writ of Vener facias which from and after the same assizes shall be awarded and directed for the impowering of Jurors in [cases] aforesaid within any County of England shall be after this Form.

REX sic precipimus sic quod veritas sic contra sic Dauidem Rectoris sic legibus homines de Viziano de A. quos quilibet habens Decem libras Terræ Tenementum vel Reddendum per Annum ad minus per quos sic. & qui sic sic.

And the residue of the said writ shall be after the ancient manner. And that the Writ [which] shall be awarded and directed for the returning of Jurors within the Dominion of Wales shall be made in the same manner shewing only the Word Dominium for Regni. And that upon every such Writ an Writ of Vener from the Sheriff Coroner and other Ministers of such respective County in England and Wales unto whom the making of the Panel shall appertain shall not return in any such Panel any Person unless he shall then have Ten Pounds or Six Pounds respectively by the year at least as aforesaid in the same County where the issue is to be tried upon pain to forfeit for every Person being returned in any such Panel that shall not then have Ten Pounds or Six Pounds respectively as aforesaid the sum of Five Pounds to their Majesties their Heirs and Successors.

Also be it further enacted That no Sheriff or Bailiff of any Liberty or Franchise or any of their or either of their Ministers shall arrest any such Person or Persons as aforesaid or have been summoned by them or any of them unless such Person and Persons shall have been duly summoned by the space of Six days at the least before the day on which they ought to make their appearance nor shall directly or indirectly take money or other Reward to excuse the appearance of any Juror by any of them to be summoned or returned upon pain to forfeit for every such Officer the sum of Ten Pounds to their Majesties their Heirs and Successors.

Notwithstanding in all Cities Boroughs and Towns Corporations their ancient usage of returning Jurors of such Estate and in such manner as heretofore has been used and accustomed. Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided notwithstanding That it shall be lawful to return any Person to serve upon the Tales in any County within the Kingdom of England who shall have within the same County Five Pounds by the year above Requested in manner aforesaid and not otherwise.

Provided notwithstanding That it shall be lawful to return any Person to serve upon the Tales in any County within the Dominion of Wales who shall have within the same County Three Pounds by the year above Requested in manner aforesaid and not otherwise.

Also be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Fee or Reward whatsoever shall be taken by any Sheriff Clerk of Assize or any other Officer or Person whatsoever for the returning of any Tales or upon the account of any Tales returned upon pain of forfeiture for every such Officer the sum of Ten Pounds wherof one moiety to be to the use of the Prosecutor and the other moiety to the use of Their Majesties their Heirs and Successors to be recovered by Action of Debt Bill Plaint or Information wherein such Essoign Protection or Writs of Law or more than one Imparison shall be allowed.

Also be it further enacted That no Writ de non processu in Assize or Jurata shall be hereafter granted unless upon Oath made that the suggestions upon which the said Writ is granted are true.

Also be it enacted that no writ of habeas corpus shall be done relate to the returning of Jurors shall be in force for the space of three years from the said first day of May One thousand six hundred ninety three and from thence to the end of the next Session of Parliament.

and that several Sheriffs &c. cannot take the Oath thereby prescribed; and that many poor Prisoners are in deplorable Conditions

WHEREAS by [an] Act of Parliament made in the second year of their Majesties Régne entitled An Act for relief of poor Prisoners for debt and damage: it is (among other things) enacted That the Sheriff Goules or Keepers of Prisons should swear that the Prisoner to be discharged was really and truly his Prisoner in his custody without fraud or deceit on or upon the eight and twentieth day of November in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred and ninety. And whereas several of the said Sheriff Goules or Keepers of Prisons were not then Sheriff Goules or Keepers of the Prisons to which they now belong so that they cannot take the Oath prescribed by the said Act whereby and by the will of the said Sheriff Goules or Keepers of Prisons and other persons contrary to the said poor Prisoners a great number of the said poor [prisoners that are in a more] deplorable condition and deserve to be relieved by the said Act and were really and truly Prisoners as the day referred to in the said Act though the said Sheriff Goules or Keepers of the respective Prisons have refused to swear for them either out of a pretended scruple of conscience that they cannot take the said Oath or because they had not money enough to give them. For remedy whereof Be it enacted by the King and Queens most excellent Majesties by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by Authority of the same That the aforesaid Act be revised and that the said Oath in the said Act of Parliament contained shall for the future be abolished and instead thereof the Oath herein after mentioned shall be the Oath to be made to the Sheriff Goules and Keepers of Prisons.

a W. & M. Stat. c. 12.

Sheriffs, &c. Oath abolished.

Not Oath.

I A B do swear That I have examined the Countenances and Books belonging to the said Prison and that by therein doth appear that L. S. was really and truly a Prisoner in the custody of the said Goules or Keeper of the Prison of D. [Prison] in the County of C without [any] fraud or deceit by me or any other to my knowledge or belief on or upon the eight and twentieth day of November in the year of our Lord God One thousand six hundred and ninety.

II.
Recall relating the Oath.

AND be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That in case any Sheriff Goules or Keeper of Prisons shall refuse to take the said Oath hereinbefore appointed to be taken [he being thereto requested unless it shall appear by the Countenances and Books belonging to the said Prison that the person for whom such Oath is required was not really and truly a prisoner in the custody of the said Goulet and Keeper according to the usage of the said showmands and that otherwise the said Goulet or Keeper Goulet or Keeper for his or their so refusing to take such Oath shall before said pay to such prisoner so about to be discharged and released from prison, and thereby detained the value of such debt; or debt; for which he or she shall be imprisoned to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of these Majesties Courts of Record And if after then and in that case upon complaint of the prisoner the Justices of the Peace of the County City or Town where the prison lies at their Quarters sessions shall have power to examine the said manner upon Oath of any other persons which Oath they are lawfully empowered and required to administer And if it shall appear upon the said examination to them or the major part of them there present that the said prisoner was really and truly a prisoner on the said Eagle and showmands day of November in the said year of our Lord God One thousand six hundred and ninety that then the said Justices or the major part of them may and shall discharge the said prisoner and prisoners as a they may have the full benefit of the said Act of Parliament notwithstanding the said Goulet Goulets or Keepers refusal of the said Oath any thing in the said Act of Parliament for and of poor prisoners to the contrary in any way notwithstanding.

The Act of 4

AN ACT for raising the Miths of the Kingdom for the years One thousand six hundred ninety four although the Miths Pay formerly advanced be not repaid.

33.
Twenty to the Party

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second entitled An Act for ordering the Forces in the several Counties of the Kingdom It was amongst other things enacted That in case of Insurrections Insurrections or Rebellions whereby Occasions should be to draw out the Soldiers mentioned and appointed in and by the said Act into affairs between the persons charged by the said Act with Horses Horsemens and Arms or with Foot Soldiers and Armes should provide such these Soldiers respectively with pay in hand not exceeding One Month's Pay as should be in that behalf directed by the respective Lieutenant of the several Counties and in those absence or otherwise by those directed by those Deputies or any Two or more of them for payment of which said money and for satisfaction of the Officers for their Pay during such time not exceeding One month as aforesaid as they should be with these Soldiers in such actual Service it was thereby declared That Provision should be made for the same by his said Majesty his Heirs and Successors out of his or their publick Treasury or Revenue. Nevertheless it was thereby further provided and enacted That in case a Month's Pay should be provided and advanced as aforesaid that no person who should have advanced his proportion thereof should be charged with any other like month's Payment until he or they should have been reimbursed the said month's Pay and see how true to the said month's Pay by him or does last before provided and advanced as aforesaid? And whereas upon the Remembrance of the Court of the Kingdom by the French it was found necessary for the publique Defence and Safety to draw out the said Soldiers into several Services and to charge the said persons to provide each these Soldiers respectively with Pay in Hand although the months pay by several of them before that time provided and advanced was not nor could be reimbursed? And whereas the like occasion may possibly happen during the present War Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queen most excellent Majesties by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same That if at any time before the First and twentieth day of March in the years of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety and five it shall be found by these Majesties to be necessary for the Defence and Safety of the Kingdom to draw out the said Soldiers into several Services and the same shall be declared or signified to the respective Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants and Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports Two ancient Towns and their Members or in his absence his Lieutenant or Lieutenant by these Majesties it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenants or their Deputies or any Two or more of them as aforesaid and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports Two ancient Towns and their Members or in his absence his Lieutenant or Lieutenant in pursuance of such Orders from these Majesties notwithstanding that one or more months Pay before that time advanced be not remembered to raise and draw out the said Soldiers into several Services and to cause the persons charged as aforesaid to provide each these Soldiers with Pay in Hand not exceeding One months Pay in such manner as if all the Pay before that time advanced and provided had been fully remembered and paid:

Enacting that upon the Remembrance by the French, it was necessary to draw out the Soldiers, but such Pay as is Hand.

And that the like Occasion may happen during the present War if found necessary before 15th March, 1695, Lieutenants, or may draw out Soldiers with Pay in Hand, although the Pay before advanced be not remembered.

WHEREAS it is manifest that of late years the Current Coin of this Kingdom hath been greatly diminished by [rounding clipping &] filing and making the same and likewise many false and counterfeit Coins have been clipped for the better disguising thereof. And inasmuch as it is apparent that these practices of diminishing the Current Coin is very much occasioned by those who drive a trade of exchanging broad money for clipped money and by other [intr &] devices. Bee it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same That from and after the First day of May which shall be in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety five if any person or persons whatsoever shall at any one time or payments exchange broad coin for more or take benefit profit or advantage than the same was coined for and ought by law to go for hee lost sold for borrowed or bought received or paid shall further the sum of Tenne pounds for every Twenty shilling that shall be so exchanged lost sold borrowed or bought received or paid and so in proportion for any greater or lesser sum one moiety thereof to his Majesty and the other moiety to the person who shall sue [or inform] for the same to be recovered (with cost of suit) by action of debt bill plaint or information whereas one privilege privilege or wage of law shall bee allowed nor any more than one repurchase.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That no person doe or shall presume to coin counterfeit or base of silver in violation of Spanish coin or export of silver nor doe stamp any mark or impression upon any import or bar as likeness of the Spanish mark or impression upon paine that the person herein offending shall for every such offence [forfeit the silver soe coin and above the sum of Five hundred pounds] one moiety to his Majesty and the other to the informer to be recovered as aforesaid and shall bee above bounden in the next check with a hot iron with the letter, R, and scull payment of the said Five hundred pounds shall suffer imprisonment.

And for the better preventing the clipping diminishing or impairing the Current Coin of this Kingdom bee it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That if any person whatsoever shall buy or sell and knowingly have in his custody or possession any clipping or filing of the Current Coin of this Kingdom hee shall for every such offence forfeit the said clipping or filing and above the sum of Five hundred pounds One moiety to his Majesty and the other to the informer to be recovered as aforesaid and shall bee above bounden in the next check with a hot iron with the letter, R, and scull payment of the said Five hundred pounds shall suffer imprisonment.

And be it further enacted That no Goldsmith or other person whatsoever shall from and after the said first day of May transport or cause to be transported out of this Kingdom of England into any part beyond (") any any molten silver whatsoever but such molten as shall be marked or stamped at Goldsmiths Hall by the Wardens some or one of them belonging to the said Company of Goldsmiths which mark or stamp the said Wardens are hereby required to provide and thereupon to mark or stamp all such silver as shall be proved before them as one of them in such manner as is hereafter mentioned to be lawful silver nor unless a certificate be first had and obtained under the hand of one or more of the said Wardens of such having been made before him or them by the Owner or Owners of such molten silver and likewise by one credible witness that the same is lawful silver and that no part thereof was (before the same was molten) the Current Coin of this Kingdom nor clipping thereof nor plate wrought within this Kingdom. Which Oath the said Wardens or any one of them are and is hereby required and authorized to administer and likewise to make and grant a certificate thereof without fee or reward an entry of which certificate shall be duly made by the said Wardens in a book to be kept for that purpose. And in case any person whatsoever who shall offer any molten silver to be marked as is aforesaid shall not prove by his or her oath and likewise by the oath of one credible witness that the silver offered to be marked is lawful silver and that the same was not before the melting thereof the Current Coin of this Kingdom nor clipping thereof nor plate wrought within the same then and in every such case it shall be lawful to and for the said Wardens or any one of them to seize and detain such molten silver soe offered to be marked until such time as such oath and proof shall be made as is aforesaid.

And be it further enacted That if any person whatsoever shall ship or cause to be shipped or put on board any vessel any molten silver not stamped or marked by the said Wardens or one of them and without certificate first obtained of such having been made before the said Wardens or one of them of the lawfulness of such silver in manner as is aforesaid (which certificate shall be shewn to some one of the Commissioners of the Customs for the time being before any cockpit but granted for the exporting such molten silver) in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or any Officers of his Majesties Customs to seize such silver so shipped, and put on board one moiety whereof shall be to his Majesty his Heirs and Successors and the other moiety to the Officer and Officers soe seizing the same.

And be it further enacted That if any Broker or Broker not being a trading Goldsmith or Refiner of silver shall buy or sell any molten silver or molten silver every such person shall suffer for every such offence imprisonment for six months without bail or mainprize.

W. & M. c. 10
i.e. 5 and of other Statutes therein in so far as they relate to Stage Coaches.

And whereas upon the Act made the last session of Parliament intituled An Act for licensing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Stage Coaches the Commissioners being thereby enabled to license Stage Coaches and it being enacted That no License continue longer than for One year from the date thereof And it being also enacted by the said Act That no person shall presume to drive or let to hire any Stage Coach or Coach House without having such leave as license as the said Act directly it hath been doubted whether the said Commissioners might make new licenses for Stage Coaches after the determination of the first and so on continue for the term of One and twenty years and what was intended by the general [prohibition] of Stage Coaches (not having such license) without having any restraint or limitation of time For explication of which doubt her it is enacted and it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforesaid that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend or be construed any way to empower any Commissioners that are or shall be appointed by virtue of the said Act to make or grant any license to any person or persons whatsoever to drive or let to hire any Stage Coach or Coach House to continue or be in force after the Fourth and twentieth day of June One thousand six hundred ninety five. And it is hereby declared and enacted that all licenses and licenses heretofore made and which are to continue after the said Fourth and twentieth day of June as for all the time after the said Fourth and twentieth day of June shall be and are hereby declared null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

XXVIII.
Injunction to Commissioners for Musters under the said Act.

And it is hereby further enacted and declared That nothing in the said Act contained shall extend or be construed to be any prohibition whereby any person shall be restrained from driving or letting to hire any Stage Coach or Coach House from and after the said Fourth and twentieth day of June And if the said Commissioners or any of them by reason of the obscurity of the said Act have made any mistake by granting or giving licenses to drive or let to hire Stage Coaches or Coach Houses to continue longer or after the said Fourth and twentieth day of June for not doing they and every of them are hereby discharged.
